

CAPABILITIES

Your source for comprehensive confidence.

Enhance Measurement Accuracy: Minimize the risk of measurement error and maximize your confidence in the numbers.

- From the wellhead to the point of sale and all points in between, ensure total measurement accuracy of hydrocarbon production volumes.

Streamline Hydrocarbon Analysis: Optimize hydrocarbon production and marketability efforts with better analytical intelligence.

- Get valuable insights into your assets to help you make more strategic operational and business decisions and optimize the efficiency and economics of lab and field testing efforts.

Improve Reporting Precision: Protect your operations and bottom line with third-party, unbiased documentation of the hydrocarbon lifecycle.

- Satisfy requirements with regulatory reporting bodies; defend contractual agreements with royalty owners and working interest owner partners; and ensure optimal marketability of assets at the point of sale.

SPL | TOTAL CONFIDENCE™

The SPL Total Confidence™ program delivers total lifecycle measurement, analysis, and reporting of hydrocarbon data on a turnkey basis, ensuring end-to-end accuracy from the wellhead to the point of sale. All with the peace of mind that comes with an expert, objective third-party managing it for you. SPL Total Confidence™ is a completely new approach toward ensuring hydrocarbon data confidence—and it's only brought to you by SPL.
